First Reading

A Reading from the book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant and a time to pluck up what is planted;

A time to kill and a time to heal,

A time to break down, and a time to build up,

A time to weep, and a time to laugh,

A time to mourn, and a time to dance,

A time to throw away stones,

And a time to gather stones together.

A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing.

A time to seek, and a time to lose,

A time to keep, and a time to throw away,

A time to tear, and a time to sow,

A time to love, and a time to hate,

A time for war and a time for peace.

The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Second Reading

A reading from the book of Apocalypse

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, "You see this city? Here lives God among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone." Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: "Now I am making the whole of creation new," he said, "I will give water from the well of life free to anybody who is thirsty; it is the rightful inheritance of the one who proves victorious; and I will be his God and he a son to me."

The Word of the Lord.

Prayers of the Faithful

We pray for Pauline and thank God for her life. May God receive her kindly and bestow upon her the rewards of her faith. May she continue to inspire us, intercede for us, and be there at the end to welcome us into eternal life.

We pray for Pauline's family - her brothers Arthur, Damian and Aidan, her sisters Lucille, Kathleen, Jacinta and Patricia.

May God grant them strength at this time.

Lord hear us... Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for those who care for the sick and housebound.

We give thanks for the skills and commitment of doctors, nurses and carers, especially those who attended to Pauline during her illness. May they continue to reflect the compassion and healing of God.

Lord hear us... Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for all those who are suffering in any way.

May God grant them strength and healing in their time of need.

Lord hear us... Lord graciously hear us.

We pray for all our loved ones who have died, especially the deceased members of the McParland family - her parents Dom and Kay and her brother-in-law Harry.

May God grant all of them the fullness of new life and happiness in the kingdom of heaven.

Lord hear us... Lord graciously hear us.

May the God of all consolation help us in our grief to comfort one another.

May we find light in time of darkness and faith in time of doubt.

Lord hear us... Lord graciously hear us.
